DR. HARRY HEDGEPETH MAKES WORLD RECORD

Pitches Petersburg to Two Shut-Out Victories Over Colts, First Being One Hit and Second No-Hit Game—Never in Organized Baseball Has

Any Pitcher Achieved This Feat.

Petersburg, Va., August 13 .- After the small, boy who infests the first row of the bleachers and sends us nervous individuals back to the decanter for more of the power to live, has grown into herculean proportions; when Heinie Busch is reciting to his great-grandlean proportions; when Heinie Busch is reciting to his great-grand-children the exploits of the days of his youth, they still will be point-ing to Dr. Harry Hedgepeth as the one and only marvel of the ing to Dr. Harry Hedgepeth as the one and only marvel of the r, Harry Hedgepeth broke a world's record to-day. He won two ball games from Richmond, which, while an achievement worthy of note, is by no means a world's record, for it has been accomplished before. We are not bragging over that fact, merely stating. But in attending to the complete demoralization of the visitors from the Jeems, Dr. Hedgepeth pitched himself into eternal glory and a place in all the guides to be hereafter published.

In the first nine innings of play Hedgepeth was hit safely just In the second nine innings of play he was hit safely not at all. Compiling the total of eighteen innings, Richmond was able to score against Dr. Hedgepeth not at all.

Putting it the way it should have been put to start with, Doctor Harry Hedgepeth, pitching two ball games in one day against the second best club in the entire Virginia League, achieved a one-hit game in the first encounter Never in the history of organized baseball has such an achievement been marked beside the name of any hurler. It stands alone, and until some day in the far future will a niche all its own in the annals

It was Busch's intention to use Rebel It was Susch's intention to use Accer Cooper, the young man he disposed of to the Yankees a couple of days ago, in the second go, but Mr. Cooper an-nounced himself as unfit, and so Doctor Heigepeth agreed to fill the breach. no question as to what he stretching of the conscience sary. Roanoke Scores Three in That Frame and Norfolk Unable to Overcome Lead.

Roanoke, Va., August 13.-The Tars were defeated to-day in the last of the series here in a close contest, 4 to 2. Efird, for the Tigors, gave the Tars Dye in the box. The latter finished

In the first inning, through two unhappy errors, the Tigers got three of their four runs. Welcher and Presson Goalby's single for the fourth and final tally. The Tars made their initial tally in the first inning, when kircher, after making a nice single, reached home on Stewart's single, sent like a bullet through Pressly into right field. Norfolk's next and final run was made in the fifth, when Stein-burner, after reaching third on a run-a-around on Irmscher's error, came home on Dye's sacrifice fly to Ginn. The game was interesting throughout, and Dye played excellent ball, He was a terror to base stealers, and made the Tigers hug first like young lovers, at one time throwing Irm-scher out, a man who is generally considered the fastest runner with the Tiger bunch. Die has a deceptive delivery, and holds the mound like a veteran. Stewert caught an excellent veteran. Stewert caught an excellent game, throwing two men out at second on attempted steals, and holding Dye in fine form. Norfolk was entitled to the game if the errors had not figured in the first inning play. They had live men left on bases, and most of their downs were flies and fouls, making the law law hit the Transporter. or six clean hits, the Tigers gotting but one run clean.
